175 years German Railways
- 20 years "Plandampf" in Germany

Under the auspices of the "rheinlandpfälzische" Minister of Economy, Transportation, Agriculture and Viticulture Hendrik Hering is the spectacle of 2010, the largest steam train event on the double anniversary "175 Years of German Railways and 20 years "Plandampf" in Germany. The organizers are the "rheinland-pfälzische" Ministry of Economy, Transportation, Agriculture and Viticulture, the "Zweckverband Schienenpersonennahverkehr Nord Rheinland-Pfalz", the "DB AG", the Association of German museum and tourist railways VDMT and the "Revierdampf"-Team.

Together with many volunteer assistants they plan and organize one of the largest European railway events of the past years. The district Cochem-Zell will also be a part of the spectacle with some great highlights!

The district Cochem-Zell makes steam with its neighboring towns along the "Moselweinbahn"

2nd - 5th April 2010

In the district Cochem-Zell will take place at Easter 2010, numerous events as part of the "Dampfspektakel at the" Mosel - Saar - und Eifelschiene". Many places along the route contribute their part to the great spectacle. Absolute highlight: The lighting of the double-decker-bridge in Bullay, the railway viaduct between Reil and Pünderich Mosel and the great fireworks at 5th April 2010.

Program:

- Lighting of Bullay Double-decker Bridge - Rail and vehicles
- Lighting of the "Pündericher Hangviadukt" with its 98 stone arches
- Lighting of the railway bridge Ediger -Eller steepest vineyard in Europe, the Calmont

“Mundart-Fahrt” in the district Cochem-Zell

The Bustour starts on Easter Saturday at 10.00 a.m. Meetingpoint: “Umweltbahnhof Bullay”

The “Mundart Initiative im Kreis Cochem-Zell e.V.” invites to an informative and entertaining journey through the district. Everyone is invited to attend! The Tour leads along the Mosel with stops in St.Aldegund and Ediger to Cochem. From here to Forst/Eifel to the historic barn of Albert Young. Then a cozy lunch will be offered with “Eifler Viez” and a hearty soup.

Continue on to Karden to visit a Winery with distillery combined with a wine tasting. On the way to the “Hunsrück” the “Backgruppe Liesenich” served “Hunsrücker Eierschmea” on freshly baked bread and “Koakaffee” brewed from freshly roasted rye. Each participant receives a bag with “Koakaffee” as souvenir. At all stops the participants will be informed about the History of the particular place in the local dialect.

Return to Bullay approximately 16.30

The fare is 6 € per Person and includes the offered drinks.

Organizer: Dialekt Initiative im Kreis Cochem-Zell e.V.

For the soup for lunch, the wine tasting and the food is a small charge requested.
